

AUTOBIOGRAPHIES/BIOGRAPHIES

Kim: My Long Night. By Kim Wickes. This is the incredible journey of a blind Korean girl who overcame huge obstacles to become a world renowned singer. Gifted with the voice of an angel, her faith in God and relationship with Jesus has carried her through even unto this day. With great diligence, she has dedicated herself to her music and to God. Originally written in 1975, this autobiographical story has been updated by Kim to include the last thirty-two years of her life. She is truly an inspiration and a gift to the world. Pb. 225 pages. ISBN: 978-1-933641-15-7 - C $11.28 ea. + tax

Port of Two Brothers. By Paul Schlener. The amazing story of two missionary brothers and their work on the Amazon. The Schlener families worked among the Ticuna Indians, seeing hundreds come to saving faith in Christ. Pb. 443 pages. ISBN: 1-888796-21-9 - C$20.00 ea. + tax